

For immediate release

John Zimich Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs (570) 831-2195
jimich@mohegansunpocono.com

Broadway Jake wins Two Straight at Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs

Broadway Jake, an eight-year-old Camluck gelding driven by Tony Morgan, made it two straight Friday (May 14) at Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs.

Trained by Kirsten Proctor, Broadway Jake got on the front end early on and held off all challengers, including Redstone Ruckus (George Napolitano Jr.) with a time of 1:51.4 in a $20,000 claimer for horses, colts and geldings.

Napolitano, Jr., the track's leading driver with 91 wins coming into the action, was attempting to win from the nine post with Redstone Ruckus.

Morgan and Proctor also teamed with Twofoureight to win a $10,000 claimer in Race 6 with the timer stopped at 1:52.4.

Young Matt Kakaley collected three wins through the first 11 races of the 16-race Friday evening card.